Journalism 101

Thursdays, 11/2 and 11/9

Time: 6-7:30 p.m.

Instructor: Ellen Mortensen

Grades 3-5

Lear how to create, write and report news and events. The first session will explain how we put a newspaper together a general overview. We will also talk about different story ideas. Then, we will split into smaller groups and each group work on a "story" for the paper.

In the second session we will conduct interviews, put the stories together and then build the pages. I will actually build pages with their stories on them, print them out and bring them to the participants. A short follow-up session will be scheduled so the participants can receive and read their very own first edition newspaper!!

Fee: $5 M/$7 NM

Game Nights

Eucher Game Night — Tuesday, Nov. 7, 6-7 p.m.

Pinochle Game Night — Tuesday, Nov. 14, 6-7 p.m.

Ages 16 and older

In this class you will learn the fundamentals of Euchre, the terminology, scoring and basic strategies of the game. There are a variety of ways to play but here you will learn 4 handed and if enough people attend, will get to practice what you learned and play a few hands together.

Whether you are a first timer wanting to learn or a past player looking to refresh your knowledge of a game you used to play, this will be fun for all who attend.

Fee: $5 M/$7 NM.
